ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

37th Annual Scientific Conference and Annual General Meeting December 1-4, 2020, Arusha, Tanzania

Background

The Tanzania Public Health Association announces its 37th Annual Joint Scientific Conference and General Meeting to be held in Arusha, Tanzania from December 1-4, 2020. The Conference objective is to foster and facilitate communication between scientists, practitioners, trainers, policy/decision makers and the general public on issues pertaining to public health. The conference will feature speakers discussing the latest research and experiences in public health to address the Sustainable Development Goals. The conference theme is “Emerging and Re-emerging Infectious Diseases: Risks, Impacts, preparedness and responses”, which covers a wide range of critically important sessions from basic research to recent innovations in health systems, communicable and non-communicable diseases and social determinants of health. This Conference will run parallel symposia under five Sub-themes.

Sub-themes

- 1) Addressing Social Determinants of Infectious Diseases of Epidemic Potential
- 2) Strengthening Health Systems and Improving Capacity to Respond to Epidemics
- 3) Partnership and multi-sector engagement for outbreak response
- 4) The intersection of Non-Communicable Disease and Infectious Disease Epidemics
- 5) Climate and Environmental change and Health

Venue: A combination of physical and virtual conference. The Physical Conference will be at Arusha, Tanzania. For virtual conference, a zoom link will be provided to all prospective participants.
